Quilt Me! Jul 09 2020 An exciting new title from the leading quilt author, Quilt Me! celebrates Jane Brocket's liberated, joyous, colourful approach to quilting using wonderful fabrics and simple shapes and patterns to create stunning effects. Taking 'inspirational fabrics' as its starting point, the book explores not only the designs available in cotton, made-for-the-market quilt/patchwork fabrics, but also moves into a new realm of alternative fabrics that can be used to make beautiful, practical, usable quilts. It is as if a quilt-maker has walked into the haberdasher's of her dreams and has explored the many possibilities that traditional fabrics offer, fabrics such as ticking, linen, gingham, tweed, tartan, suiting, shirting, velvet, silk and calico. With clear instructions for a fantastic variety of quilts, Quilt Me! recreates the excitement, known to all quilters, of rummaging through a new stash of fabrics. The author describes the joy to be found in a wonderful colour scheme, design or pattern, as well as the aesthetic and practical advantages of making the most of what we find in traditional fabric shops and in our textile heritage, finding alternatives to quilt cottons, and casting a new eye over fabrics made for other purposes such as clothes, curtains, upholstery and interior decoration.

Quilt Love Jun 07 2020 Few of us are fortunate enough to have a handmade quilt handed down through our family. In our grandmother's time, quilt-makers used whatever pieces of fabrics they could lay their hands on, from worn-out clothes to flour sacks and scraps. When the quilt was pieced together, its fabric represented something that was practical, precious and personal - an heirloom that would be passed down for generations. In Quilt Love, bespoke quilt designer and maker Cassandra Ellis teaches her freeform design techniques, which rely in part on intuition and improvisation, to enable you to create your own contemporary heirloom. Cassandra takes a refreshing, non-intimidating approach to quilting. She demonstrates how to use your eye and trust your instincts to gather together fabrics that remind you of a special time, person or occasion. Through a wonderful collection of 20 projects - presented in four chapters 'Big Events', 'Love', 'Friendship' and 'Memories' - she shows how to tell stories through patchwork, using fabric to draw together the threads of memories, histories, hope and love. As well as the challenging projects that are true labours of love, such as full-size quilts for beds, there are simple designs for quick and easy projects that you can complete in a couple of hours, including cushions, framed artworks, a tote bag, a pet blanket and a simple curtain. It is also possible to improvise patches from any of the designs can be sewn up to make a cushion cover, for example, or used as the building block for more elaborate designs. Making patchwork and quilts is the perfect opportunity to recycle fabric and use up scraps to make something beautiful and significant that will be treasured for years to come. Cassandra shows how to incorporate fragments of fabric that have special meaning, using a piece that you love as the starting point and core of your design. This could be a cherished item of clothing, a tablecloth or curtain, a piece of heirloom embroidery, or specially chosen contemporary fabric that excites you - whatever you love the look of.
